As our city and state begin moving into a new phase of response to COVID-19, Laurel Heights has begun the process of planning for our own return to life together as a the gathered body of Christ. The first step of that process is the formation of a working group, called together by Paul Escamilla, our senior pastor, Sue Hall, chair of the administrative council, and Katie Myers, lay leader.

4.5 Stars. What a great story from beginning to end and what an ending. I never saw that coming! Just when you think everything is tied up nice and sweet, the author throws an ending in that stunned me. Both the main characters and the secondary characters are great. Laurel Heights is definitely a different place to live.
